

Dr. Alanna Thain is an Associate Professor in the Department of English at McGill University where she specializes in cultural studies, cinema, and theory. Dr. Thain has published on animation, performance and dance, and the philosophy of the body and movement and her book, Bodies in Time: Suspense, Affect, Cinema, is forthcoming from University of Minnesota Press. During her visit to MSU, Dr. Thain will be speaking about uncanny cinematic bodies in time travel movies.

ALANNA THAIN

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR,
MCGILL UNIVERSITY

ANIMAL UNFAMILIARS:
THE STRANGE BODIES OF TIME TRAVEL CINEMA

FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 4PM
Film Screening Room
C640 Wells Hall

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Arts & Letters
Department of English
Film Studies Program