

2017-18 SCHEDULE >

SEPTEMBER 29, 8pm

Méliès, Magic, and the Avant-Garde

Our outdoor premier with live music by Lyn Goeringer and friends.

Location: MSU Broad Sculpture Garden
Programmed by Justus Nieland, Matthew Solomon, and Josh Yumibe

OCTOBER 20, 7pm

Art Work: Three Views from Detroit

Reach through and beyond the body towards the ecstatic unknown.

Location: The Robin Theatre
Films by Detroit-based filmmaker Julia Yezbick

NOVEMBER 17, 7pm

Spoils

The ecological, economic, and cultural aspects of colonialism and various forms of material extraction.

Location: The Robin Theatre
Programmed by Lily Woodruff

DECEMBER 8, 7pm

The Mongols

A critique of media and cultural imperialism through a reenactment of the 13th-century Mongol invasion of Iran.

Location: The Robin Theatre
Programmed by Kaveh Askari

JANUARY 26, 7pm

Oedipal Effigies & Modern Myths

A post-apocalyptic landscape, a hedonistic folk demon, and a castrated buffoon.

Location: MSU Broad
Programmed by Yelena Kalinsky and Ellen McCallum

FEBRUARY 23, 7pm

Haiti Bride

Haiti, an earthquake, and the question of time and being.

Location: The Robin Theatre
Programmed by Kenneth Harrow

MARCH 23, 7pm

Beauty and the Glitch

Contemporary digital experiments in animation, seeking to glitch the beautiful and find beauty in the glitch.

Location: The Robin Theatre
Programmed by Mihaela Mihailova

APRIL 13, 5:30pm

Enlightened Forms: Embodiment and Visual Space in Abstract Film

Films and synthetic sound with Kelly Egan, a Toronto-based filmmaker, sound composer, and archivist.

Location: Abrams Planetarium
Programmed by guest curator Kelly Egan with assistance by Lyn Goeringer

BROAD UNDERGROUND is an ongoing collaboration between the MSU Broad, Film Studies program, and Department of English at MSU. This year's partnering venue is The Robin Theatre in REO Town, Lansing, with special thanks to the Lansing Public Media Center.

BROAD BROAD

UNDERGROUND

FILM STUDIES FILM SERIES

An exploration of video art and experimental and avant-garde film from its earliest developments to the present day.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE + OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

547 E Circle Dr., East Lansing MI

broadmuseum.msu.edu

517 884 4800

MSU BROAD