

James Naremore is Chancellor's Professor Emeritus at Indiana University, and the author of Charles Burnett: A Cinema of Symbolic Knowledge, the first book-length study of the director. His other books include More than Night: Film Noir in its Contexts, Acting in the Cinema, On Kubrick, The Magic World of Orson Welles, and An Invention without a Future: Essays on Cinema.

MSU Faculty Roundtable with Dr. Naremore to follow on Charles Burnett's To Sleep with Anger, featuring Professors Tama Hamilton-Wray, Jeff Wray, and Ken Harrow.

Sponsored by the MSU Film Studies Program, with support from the Department of Screen Arts and Cultures at the University of Michigan.

JAMES NAREMORE

CHARLES BURNETT: A CINEMA OF SYMBOLIC KNOWLEDGE

SCREENING OF
TO SLEEP WITH ANGER
MONDAY, MARCH 26
7:30PM, B122 WELLS HALL

LECTURE AND ROUNDTABLE ON FILMMAKER
CHARLES BURNETT
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28
4:10-6PM, B122 WELLS HALL